Rose, I see the event schedule on page 7 with the start times, but (with the exception of Vaughan, where there is a finish time), I did not note any mention of them attending Queen's Park today or times or what to expect at each location - stopping for a rally or just passing by.

My apologies for another inquiry - just noted that the next SitRep is not expected until 0630 hrs. Are they planning on doing a summary tonight on the overall situational picture in Ottawa i.e. convoys have concluded for the day, and what onground picture looks like regarding demonstrations and/or the congregation of supports on the streets of Ottawa, if any?

Stephanie advised - There are still convoys travelling on our roads and PLT monitoring so not closed. POC will send fast facts and overnight summary will be provided in morning. ER - EOC and NCRCC did not provide those updates . I have asked stephanie the Provincial eoc should be engaged in those updates as we have OPP in the ncrcc and ER EOC is us so flow must work better to keep ghq EOC aware (which means keeping us aware).
